

English 10 - Caricature assignment

This is due on Monday 3/15/2010

Follow these directions: Think of a physical characteristic about yourself that you struggle with, find hard to accept or often make fun of. If this is difficult or embarrassing, imagine you are someone else, maybe someone famous, with a physical characteristic that is obvious or easily identifiable.

It CANNOT be someone else in this school, especially someone in this class or me. On the top of this piece of paper, write the person's name (real or imaginary) and describe in a narrative story form the physical characteristic in as much detail as you can muster. WRITE ONE FULL PAGE. Try to exaggerate the characteristic as much as possible. Use hyperbole. On the back of your picture or on a separate sheet, draw a caricature about yourself or your person like this one ⇒
